Dostoevsky 's Crime and Punishment refashioned the idea of what a novel could be. By the 1860s Dostoevsky had been orphaned, imprisoned, conscripted and widowed. Lumbered with debts and immersed in the nihilism of St Petersburg, he set about developing the " psychological account of a crime " . By Leo Robson. Follow @leorobsonwriter.

The themes in the writings of Russian writer Fyodor Dostoyevsky, which consist of novels, novellas, short stories, essays, epistolary novels, poetry, spy fiction and suspense, include suicide, poverty, human manipulation, and morality. Dostoesky was deeply Orthodox and religious themes are found throughout his works, especially in those written after his release from prison in 1854. His early works emphasised realism and naturalism, as well as social issues such as the differences between the po
