Searching for Stinkodon by Megan McDonald is an early Juvenile fiction chapter book that tells the story of Judy Moody and her friends as they look for fossils in her backyard. The idea is instigated by Judy's younger brother Stink, as he wants to try to find a fossil of any prehistoric creature, have it named after him and become famous.

Judy Moody and Friends: Searching for Stinkodon by Megan ...

The grammar in the Friends series sometimes makes me cringe and stumble over the wording but the Judy Moody and Stink books seem to be written much better. We also live in a part of the country that rarely sees snow so my daughter could really relate to Stink's longing for a white Christmas. As an only child she had a harder time relating to the name calling and playful teasing, though.
